About Outdoor Women's Life

Outdoor Women's Life (OWL), a non-profit group sponsored by the national organization and the Maryland chapter of Pheasants Forever, offers programs which promote women's and youth outdoor activities and learning workshops. OWL workshops are designed for women (14 years and older*) who wish to participate in a vast array of courses that you may not otherwise have access to despite having an interest. It gives you an opportunity to experience new adventures that often become a regular part of your lifestyle and enables you to enhance your skills in activities you enjoy but don't make time to pursue.
